

Behavioural Contract for Camp Deen Participants

As a community member of Camp Deen, I promise to abide by the code of conduct defined below.

1. To have a positive attitude and conduct myself in a manner that reflects the principles of Camp Deen and Islam.
2. To respect, follow and cooperate with counsellors, staff and fellow campers in their roles as leaders and organizers of camp activities and responsibilities.
3. To respect camp property, and not bring fireworks/explosive or lighting materials to camp, to deface, disfigure, damage, destroy, or unlawfully possess or use of property.
4. To not threaten or use any physical violence against any person as it is prohibited. This includes doing intentional harm or bullying another camper, either physically or emotionally because this is grounds for dismissal from camp.
5. To refrain from using obscene, offensive or abusive language.
6. To take full financial responsibility for all property damage(s) or losses that occur to as a result of my behavior, including Camp Deen property, Long Bay campground property, other campers' property or my own property.
7. To remain with my counselor and group and fully participate in all activities and obligations of my group.
8. To leave my cell phone and other electronic devices in my cabin, unless previously arranged with my counselor or senior staff. I understand that if there is an emergency the camp staff will be happy to allow me to use the camp phone and will pass on any urgent messages from home.
9. To only use the waterfront during the appropriate daytime waterfront periods and that boys & girls sessions will be separate.
10. To respect the rules and regulations of Camp Deen both posted and issued verbally.

By signing this document, I agree to the above terms and stipulations while I am a participant at Camp Deen.

Failure to abide by this contract will result in my immediate removal from Camp Deen WITHOUT compensation to my parents.
